

Headingley Library Book Club Kits

The Reading List by Sara Nisha Adams

An unforgettable and heartwarming debut about how a chance encounter with a list of library books helps forge an unlikely friendship between two very different people in a London suburb. (8 copies / fiction)

The Push by Ashley Audrain

A tense, psychological drama about the making and breaking of a family, and about a woman whose experience of motherhood is nothing at all what she hoped for, and everything she feared. (4 copies / fiction)

A Man Called Ove by Fredrik Backman

A grumpy yet loveable man finds his solitary world turned on its head when a boisterous young family moves in next door. (4 copies / fiction)

Anxious People by Fredrik Backman

A poignant comedy about a crime that never took place, a would-be bank robber who disappears into thin air, and eight extremely anxious strangers who find they have more in common than they ever imagined. (7 copies / fiction)

The Husbands by Chandler Baker

Calling to mind a Stepford Wives gender-swap, The Husbands imagines a world where the burden of the "second shift" is equally shared--and what it may take to get there. To what lengths will a woman go for a little more help from her husband? (8 copies / fiction)

This Is How It Always Is - Laurie Frankel

A novel about revelations, transformations and family. Change is always hard and miraculous and hard again, parenting is always a leap into the unknown with crossed fingers and full hearts, children grow but not always according to plan. And families with secrets don't get to keep them forever. (6 copies / fiction)

Eleanor Oliphant is Completely Fine - Gail Honeyman

Smart, warm, uplifting, the story of an out-of-the-ordinary heroine whose deadpan weirdness and unconscious wit make for an irresistible journey as she realizes the only way to survive is to open her heart. (6 copies / fiction)

Apples Never Fall - Liane Moriarty

A novel that looks at marriage, siblings, and how the people we love the most can hurt us the deepest. The Delaney family love one another dearly—it's just that sometimes they want to murder each other . . . (8 copies / fiction)

Little Fires Everywhere - Celeste Ng

Little Fires Everywhere explores the weight of secrets, the nature of art and identity, and the ferocious pull of motherhood—and the danger of believing that following the rules can avert disaster. (8 copies / fiction)

The Switch - Beth O'Leary

Will swapping lives help Grandmother Eileen and Granddaughter Leena find themselves...and maybe even find true love? In Beth O'Leary's The Switch, it's never too late to change everything....or to find yourself. (4 copies / fiction)

Small Great Things - Jodi Picoult

An intelligent, empathetic story about a woman caught in a gripping moral dilemma that resonates far beyond her place in time and history into present day. (5 copies / fiction)

The Alice Network - Kate Quinn

Two women—a female spy recruited to the real-life Alice Network in France during World War I and an unconventional American socialite searching for her cousin in 1947—are brought together in a mesmerizing story of courage and redemption. (8 copies / fiction)

Women Talking - Miriam Toews

A "based on true events" novel centers on the secret meetings of eight Mennonite women who must decide how to react to traumatic events occurring to women on the colony. They have only 48 hours before the colony men, who are away to post bail for the accused, return. (6 copies / fiction)

Everything is Fine - Vince Granata

Grief, mental illness, and the bonds of family are movingly explored in this memoir as Granata delves into the tragedy of his mother's violent death at the hands of his brother who struggled with schizophrenia. (6 copies / non- fiction)

Maid - Stephanie Land

Maid: Hard Work, Low Pay and a Mother's Will to Survive is Stephanie's story, but it's not hers alone. It is an inspiring testament to the courage, determination, and ultimate strength of the human spirit. ( 4 copies / non- fiction)

Book Club Kits have a 6-week borrowing period and can only be checked out and returned as a full kit. Each book comes with a corresponding sign out sheet and laminated discussion sheet.
